St James' Mission Statement:

*To ensure everyone within our school family achieves their full potential, to encourage learning and development through faith, and to strive for excellence

Rationale:

St James' Catholic High School is an inclusive school, where we believe all pupils have the right to access an appropriate curriculum and enjoy every aspect of school life, regardless of any learning, physical or social disability. All pupils should have the opportunity to fulfil their potential and appropriate provision will be in place to meet the diverse needs of all learners.

Aims:

- To ensure all St James' pupils' physical needs are accommodated
- To make sure all staff are fully aware of pupils' physical needs and how they should respond accordingly
- To make certain that all pupils have the right to access emotional support and receive appropriate professional guidance to achieve equality of opportunity

Introduction

This plan identifies how the school meets the needs of disabled pupils in response to the Special Educational Needs and Disabilities Code of Practice 2014: 0 to 25 years. This will be reviewed every three years by the Policy & Practice Committee of the Governing Body.

Definitions of SEND

'A child or young person has SEN if they have a learning difficulty or disability which calls for special educational provision to be made for him or her.

A child of compulsory school age or a young person has a learning difficulty or a disability if he or she:

- has significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of others of the same age or
- has a disability which prevents or hinders him or her making use of facilities of a kind generally provided for others of the same age in mainstream schools or colleges.'

(SEND code of Practice 2014)

'Many children and young people who have SEN may have a disability under the Equality Act 2010- that is'... 'a physical or mental impairment which has a long-term and substantial adverse effect on their ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities'. The definition provides a relatively low threshold and includes more children than many realise: 'long-term' is defined as 'a year or more' and 'substantial is defined as 'more than minor or trivial'. This definition includes sensory impairments such as those affecting sight and hearing, and long-term health conditions such as asthma, diabetes, epilepsy and cancer. Children and young people with such conditions do not necessarily have SEN, but there is a significant overlap between disabled children and young people and those with SEN. Where a disabled child or young person requires special educational provision they will also be covered by the SEN definition.' (SEND code of Practice 2014)

The Equality Act 2010

'The Equality Act 2010 sets out the legal obligations that schools, early years providers, post-16 institutions, local authorities have towards disabled children and young people;

- They must not directly or indirectly discriminate against, harass or victimise disabled children and young people
- They must make reasonable adjustments, including the provision of auxiliary aids and services, to ensure that disabled children and young people are not at a substantial disadvantage compared with their peers. This duty is anticipatory- it requires thought to be given in advance to what disabled children and young people might require and what adjustments might need to be made to prevent that disadvantage.
- Public bodies, including FE institutions, LA, maintained schools, maintained nursery schools, academies and free schools are covered by the public sector equality duty and when carrying out their functions must have regard to the need to eliminate discrimination, promote equality of opportunity and foster good relations between disabled and non-disabled children and young people. They must publish information to demonstrate their compliance with this general duty and must prepare and publish objectives to achieve the core aims of the general duty. Objectives must be specific and measureable.' (SEND code of Practice 2014)
- The duties cover discrimination in the provision of services and the provision of education, including admissions and exclusions. (SEND code of Practice 2014)

ST JAMES'

The Accessibility Plan should be read in conjunction with-

1. The Admissions policy.
2. The Behaviour Policy.
3. The SEND information report and policy.
4. The SEND Offer.

All policies will be checked to ensure that they do not, unintentionally, treat pupils with disabilities less favourably.

The Accessibility Plan

All providers must make reasonable adjustments to procedures, criteria and practices and by the provision of auxiliary aids and services. Most providers must also make reasonable adjustments by making physical alterations. Schools and LA education functions are not covered by this last duty but they must publish accessibility plans'....'setting out how they plan to increase access for disabled pupils to the curriculum, the physical environment and to information.' (SEND code of Practice 2014)

' Where a child or young person is covered by SEN and disability legislation, reasonable adjustments and access arrangements should be considered as part of SEN planning and review.' (SEND code of Practice 2014). The full range of needs and required support for all pupils identified as SEN Support or with a statement/EHC plan will be considered at least termly. The discussions will involve staff, parents and children plus outside agencies, as necessary.

The action plan below identifies key activities that will take place to ensure that the school becomes increasingly accessible for pupils with disabilities.

Monitoring

Students' attainment, progress, attendance and behaviour are monitored throughout the year, with information being gathered and analysed at each termly data point. SENCO and AHT discuss data through regular link meetings to ensure all students are being monitored. This data is used to ensure inclusivity throughout the curriculum for all students.

All SEN E and SEN K students, along with appropriate SEN monitor students, are invited to an annual review conducted by the SENCO to ensure all needs are being met suitably and steps put in place to support their wellbeing and progress.

The Headteacher maintains a 'Discrimination Record' which details any reported incidents of discrimination, including disability discrimination, and the subsequent action that has been carried out by the staff. All such
