

THE ATTITUDE TO LEARNING (ATL) SYSTEM

ATL 1 – EXCELLENT – all of the following

- All class work and homework are done to the best of your ability
- Your behaviour is excellent at all times
- You are an independent, self-motivated learner
- You always pay attention in class and frequently helps others
- You go above and beyond the expectations of the class teacher

ATL 2 – GOOD – all of the following

- All of your class work and homework are done to the best of your ability
- Your behaviour is good
- You are nearly always an independent and self-motivated learner
- You pay attention in class and help others to learn
- You meet the expectations of the class teacher

ATL 3 – NOT YET GOOD – some or all of the following

- Class work is not at your expected standard
- Homework is not at your expected standard
- At times, your behaviour stops you or others from learning
- You do not pay attention consistently in class or help others to learn
- You fail to meet the expectations of the class teacher

ATL 4 – UNACCEPTABLE

- Your class work IS not completed or significantly below your expected standard
- Homework is either not completed or of a poor standard
- Your behaviour often stops you or others from learning
- You do not pay attention in class or help others to learn
- You are significantly below the minimum expectations of the class teacher