

THE ATTITUDE TO LEARNING (ATL) SYSTEM

ATL 1 – EXCELLENT – all of the following

- You have achieved a consistently high RTL points score
- All class work and homework are done to the best of your ability. Homework is never late and you're always trying to improve it!
- Your behaviour is excellent at all times.
- You are an independent, self-motivated learner who always pays attention in class and frequently helps others.

ATL 2 – GOOD – all of the following

- You have achieved a consistently high RTL points score
- All of your class work and homework are done to the best of your ability.
- Your behaviour is always good.
- You are nearly always an independent and self-motivated learner.
- You pay attention in class and help others to learn most of the time.

ATL 3 – NOT YET GOOD – some or all of the following

- You are losing too many RTL points over time
- Class work over time is not at your expected standard
- Homework over time is not at your expected standard
- At times, your behaviour stops you or others from learning
- You do not pay attention consistently in class or help others to learn most of the time

ATL 4 – POOR

- You have a consistently low RTL points score
- Your class work over time is often not completed.
- Homework over time is either not completed or of a poor standard
- Your behaviour often stops you or others from learning
- You rarely pay attention in class or help others to learn
