OPPORTUNITIES

On Friday 1st December, Stockport College will be hosting a drop in session at lunchtime to answer any questions pupils may have and support their applications. This is open to all Year 11 pupils and we would encourage anyone who is considering applying to attend.

Sony are running a photography competition for people aged under 19. The theme this year is "Through your eyes". What is your (and your generation's) perception of the world? From your family to the local environment to your day-to-day life, show us what – through your eyes – are the subjects and themes you want to photograph and share. Whatever the genre, technique or subject matter, we want to see your photographs. You can enter up to three images for free.

Pentabus are offering a FREE 6 month scriptwriting course for those ages 16. Through a series of online evening sessions you will work with experienced writers and directors to develop a short script. Your work will be realised in a digital format. Read more here.

The Black Academic Futures Scholarships offer UK Black and Mixed Black students financial support to pursue graduate study at Oxford. Each scholarship will cover your course fees in full and will provide you with a grant for living costs. Awards are made for the full duration of your fee liability for your course. Read more here.

NGTU have a library of online resources to help with a range of topics like writing a cover letter and understanding the world of work.

JOB OF THE WEEK

This week's video focuses on the job role of a Urban Designer.

Urban designers create practical and visually pleasing places, including buildings, open spaces, and landscapes.

Watch the video to learn more about how much you could earn, the qualifications you need & what subjects link to this career.

LABOUR MARKET INFORMATION FACT

New research has revealed that one in five jobs in London is in the creative economy – increasing from one in six in 2016 when Sadiq became Mayor.

The capital is contributing more than half of the UK's entire creative industries economic output.
